

AAC-tivity – Family Fun Day!

You are invited to attend the Statewide Complex Communication Needs (SCCN) Project's very first AAC-tivity event.

This is the perfect social networking opportunity, and is open to people with complex communication needs (CCN is a term used the needs of people who have little or no speech), aged from 5 - 18 years and their families.

Hosted by the SCCN team, this Family Fun Day will consist of various fun filled games and activities.

When? Monday 14 April 2008, 12noon – 3pm

Where? North Adelaide Aquatic Centre Parklands, Jeffcott Street, North Adelaide

RSVP? To the SCCN Team by Wednesday 9 April 2008 on 8243 8368 or via email to sccn@novita.or.au

Important note:

- Bring along chairs, rugs, picnic lunch, sunscreen and hat.
- If the weather is unpleasant, the Family Fun Day will be held at Novita, Regency Park Theatre, 171 Days Road, Regency Park

About AAC-tivity:

The AAC-tivity Program provides scheduled activities designed to bring people with CCN and augmentative or alternative communication (AAC – any method used to assist or replace speech for communication) together to share experiences, build social networks and support community participation.

For more information about future AAC-tivity events, please phone 8243 8368 or visit www.novitatech.org.au/SCCN to register on the SCCN mailing list.
